(2) Graduate Studies Division, Administration Building I 2F, Heping Campus

Required Documents:

A. NTNU Student Information Record (Please download during online confirmation).

B. Domestic Students: Graduation diploma (original diploma and 1 copy).

Overseas Students: Students with a diploma from an overseas school will need to present their original diploma and transcript. Both diploma and transcript need to have been previously authenticated by an overseas Taipei Economic and Cultural Office.

Points to Remember:

- In accordance with regulations of the University Entrance Committee for Overseas Chinese Students Admission Prospectus, please present your school diploma to NTNU for verification before the first day of class (September 5, 2022). Failure to do so will be considered as failing to meet qualifications for registration, resulting in your admissions being revoked. No graduation certification in the future will be accepted.
- Students from Hong Kong, Macau, and international students must have their diploma/transcript authenticated at an overseas Taipei Economic and Cultural Office by September 5, 2022. For students from the Mainland China region, the authentication process of their documents must be completed at a respective agency by September 5, 2022.
- The diploma/transcript authentication process is lengthy; therefore, it is recommended that students start as early as possible.

※ For male overseas Chinese holders of R.O.C. ID cards, following registration, please apply for a deferment of military service with the Division of Student Assistance in the Office of Student Affairs.

IV. Further registration details:

For further details regarding student ID number inquiry, course selection, registration fees, health checks, and dorm room application, starting from mid-May, please visit the Office of Academic Affairs homepage→Graduate Studies Division→Registration. No further notifications regarding these topics will be made outside of this location.

V. Admission Deferral (Applications will be accepted starting June 2022)

Except in instances in which admission deferral is not permitted by the student's department/graduate institute, once they have completed their registration process, new students wanting to defer admission to the following school year may apply in accordance with the rules and steps detailed in the 2022 Academic Year First Semester New Student Registration Guidelines (estimated release date: mid-May). Following approval of their application, students can enroll in the subsequent school year, following the same rules and regulations applicable to new students enrolling in the beginning of the academic year. Please visit the Office of Academic Affairs homepage→New Student Arrival→M.A. & Ph.D. Students to download a Deferral Request Form.
